Eligibility

To be eligible for a Contest Winners Circle award, students must be enrolled in a public or private school in the United States. Students must also have achieved a high level of accomplishment in their chosen field. This can be demonstrated through grades, test scores, awards, or other evidence of achievement.

Selection Process

A panel of judges selects the winners of the Contest Winners Circle awards. The judges are experts in their respective fields and are responsible for evaluating the students' applications and selecting the most deserving candidates.

Award Ceremony

The Contest Winners Circle award ceremony is held annually in Washington, D.C. The ceremony is a formal event that recognizes the achievements of the students and their families. The students are presented with their awards and are given the opportunity to share their stories with the audience.

Benefits of Winning

Winning a Contest Winners Circle award is a great honor. It is a recognition of the student's hard work and dedication. The award can also open doors to new opportunities, such as scholarships, internships, and job offers.
