The Story

Biscuit is a playful puppy who loves to explore. One day, he is playing in the park when he sees a sign that says "Dog Show." Biscuit decides to enter the show, and he is soon competing in the "Best Behaved Dog" category.

At first, Biscuit is very excited to be in the show. However, he soon starts to get distracted by all the other dogs and the sights and sounds around him. He starts to run around and bark, and he even jumps on the judge's table.

The judge is not impressed with Biscuit's behavior, and he tells Biscuit that he will not win the prize if he does not follow the rules. Biscuit is disappointed, but he knows that the judge is right. He takes a deep breath and calms down.

For the rest of the show, Biscuit follows the rules and behaves himself. He sits when he is told to sit, and he stays by his owner's side. The judge is impressed with Biscuit's behavior, and he awards him the prize for "Best Behaved Dog."
