The Megafugly

One of the most megafugly places in Brazil is the favelas. These slums are home to millions of Brazilians who live in poverty. The favelas are often overcrowded, unsanitary, and dangerous. They are a breeding ground for crime and disease.

Another megafugly place in Brazil is the city of São Paulo. São Paulo is the largest city in Brazil and one of the largest cities in the world. It is a sprawling metropolis with a population of over 12 million people. São Paulo is a major center of commerce and industry, but it is also a city of poverty and crime.
