Sacred Choral Works

Shrock's sacred choral works are deeply spiritual and reverent, offering profound reflections on faith, hope, and the human experience. "Jubilate Deo" is a joyous and uplifting anthem that celebrates the glory of God, while "Agnus Dei" is a moving and introspective meditation on the sacrifice of Christ.

Secular Choral Works

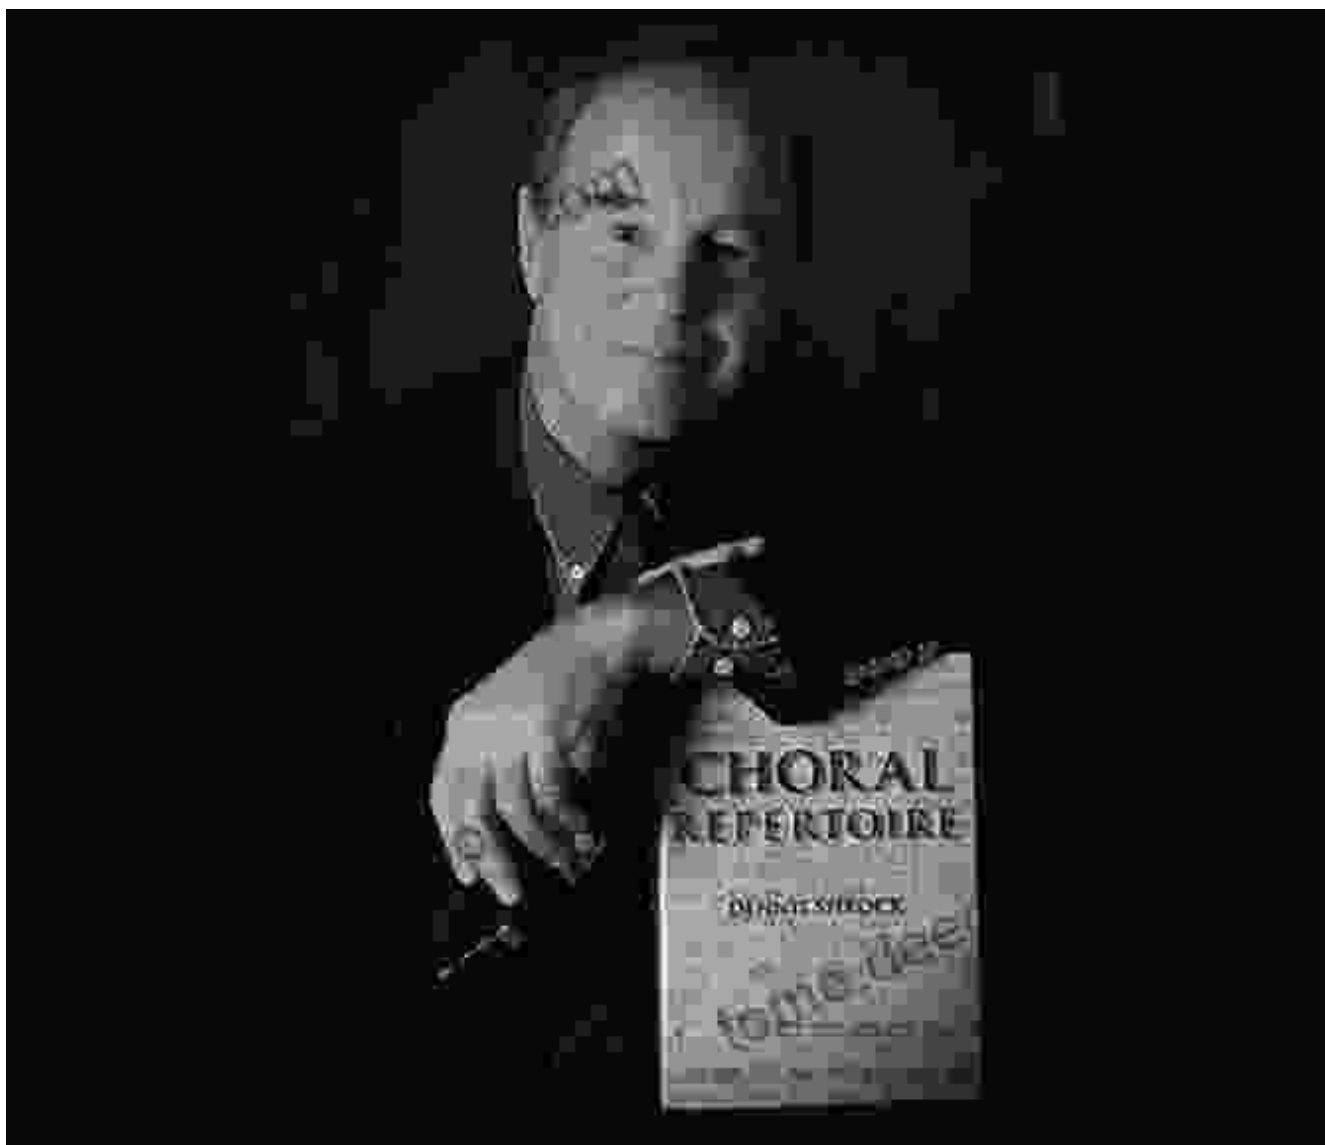

Shrock's secular choral works explore a wide range of themes, from nature's beauty to the complexities of human relationships. "The Lark Ascending" is a lyrical and ethereal piece inspired by the soaring flight of a bird, while "At the Round Earth's Imagined Corners" is a powerful and evocative setting of a text by William Shakespeare.

Arrangements for Chorus

In addition to his original compositions, Dennis Shrock has also created masterful arrangements of beloved choral works by other composers. His arrangement of Handel's "Hallelujah Chorus" showcases his keen sense of balance and texture, while his setting of "Ave Maria" by Franz Schubert captures the ethereal beauty of the original.
