Nestled in the heart of Thunder Heights, three iconic buildings stand as testaments to the rich history and vibrant spirit of the community. These structures - Window On The Square, Thunder Heights And The Golden Unicorn - have played pivotal roles in shaping the neighborhood's identity and fostering a sense of belonging among its residents.

Window On The Square

Window On The Square, a magnificent Victorian-era building, has been a beloved landmark in Thunder Heights for over a century. Its imposing facade, adorned with intricate stone carvings and towering spires, commands attention and evokes a sense of grandeur. Step inside, and you'll be greeted by a spacious foyer with a sweeping staircase leading to the upper floors.

Originally built as a private residence, Window On The Square has served various purposes throughout its history. It has housed a library, a community center, and even a hospital during the Great War. Today, it is home to the Thunder Heights Historical Society, which preserves and celebrates the neighborhood's rich heritage through exhibits, lectures, and educational programs.

Thunder Heights

Just a stone's throw away from Window On The Square stands Thunder Heights, a modern architectural masterpiece that has quickly become a symbol of the neighborhood's progress and dynamism. With its sleek glass and steel facade, Thunder Heights soars above the surrounding buildings, offering breathtaking views of the city skyline.

Designed by renowned architect Anya Petrova, Thunder Heights houses a mix of residential units, commercial spaces, and public amenities. It boasts a state-of-the-art fitness center, a rooftop garden, and a vibrant street-level plaza that hosts farmers markets, art exhibitions, and live music performances.

The Golden Unicorn

Nestled at the corner of Main Street and Willow Avenue, The Golden Unicorn is a charming and historic pub that has been a gathering place for the people of Thunder Heights for generations. Its cozy interior features wood-paneled walls, a crackling fireplace, and a lively atmosphere that draws in locals and visitors alike.

The Golden Unicorn is renowned for its traditional English fare, including hearty pies, roasts, and fish and chips. It also has a wide selection of beers, wines, and spirits, making it a popular spot for after-work drinks or weekend getaways. The pub also hosts regular events, such as live music, trivia nights, and pub quizzes.

Window On The Square, Thunder Heights, and The Golden Unicorn stand as proud symbols of Thunder Heights' rich past, present, and future. These buildings have played pivotal roles in shaping the neighborhood's identity, fostering a sense of belonging among its residents, and creating a vibrant and dynamic community.
